Cancellation is subject to the GS1 Licence Agreement Terms and Conditions. Your attention is drawn to the following:

- Upon cancellation you must immediately cease the use of the specified numbers (GS1 Identification Keys and Bar Code Symbols) previously licenced to you as a subscriber member of GS1 Australia and cease applying the GS1 ID Keys and Bar Code Symbols to any of your products manufactured or sold by you after the cancellation date
- All products carrying the cancelled number must no longer be in the supply chain before a number can be cancelled
- Cancellation of the licensed use of GS1 Identification Keys and Bar Code Symbols does not relieve either GS1 or you from liability arising from any breach of the terms of the applicable membership agreement(s)
- Should your company continue use of the GS1 Identification Keys and Bar Code Symbols after termination it is acting in breach of the terms of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (CCA).

It is in breach of Section 18 of the Act in that it is engaging in misleading and deceptive conduct; and of Section 29 of the Act in that it is falsely asserting that the company has an approval of affiliation it does not have.

- Should this cancellation result in a revised invoice, then processing fees may apply
- Reinstatement of number use will be subject to new number allocation fees and payment in full of any outstanding fees, and availability of the cancelled number range
- GS1 Australia has the right to reassign cancelled GS1 bar code number(s) to another organisation
- GS1 Australia has the right to notify all major Australian retailers using the GS1 System of your cancelled numbers
- If number cancellation results in a re-issue of an invoice, administration fees may apply.

I _____ am the nominated GS1 co-ordinator and have read and understood and shall abide by the above cancellation conditions. The company hereby agrees to adhere to the terms and conditions outlined and abide by the rules of GS1 Australia. The company acknowledgement that cancellation of numbers does NOT terminate the Subscription Membership Licence under which the numbers were issued.
