Online Marketplaces: Barcodes, GTINs and You

The GS1 Australia Online Marketplaces industry news is specifically for businesses selling through online channels such as Amazon, eBay and Alibaba. At GS1 we aim to provide our members with useful and authentic information sourced from trusted partners, in the hope that you will be able to utilise this in your own business. The digital world is an exciting platform and quite different from traditional 'bricks and mortar', as are the supporting supply chains and standards.

China Customs adopts GTIN reporting

Improving the efficiency of supervision and customs clearance has become a significant challenge for customs agencies around the world.

Imports and exports to China will now be streamlined using Global Trade Item Numbers (GTINs) thanks to a resolution by Chinese Customs.
